Leaps and Bounds Family Services expands Professional Development Opportunities for Child Care Providers

Warren, MI, March 2019- Leaps and Bounds Family Services is pleased to announce that the agency has expanded its training for childcare providers and now provides certification training in the Child Development Associate (CDA) national credential.

The agency will provide the specialized intensive CDA training and credential support to over 100 childcare providers annually. This intensive training takes over 5 months to complete. Training is free and supported with funding from United Way for Southeastern Michigan, Wells Fargo Bank, the Detroit Regional Workforce Fund and the Early Childhood Investment Corporation.

This specialized training builds on the agency's ongoing professional development classes for childcare providers. In addition to the CDA training, the agency provides over 30 training sessions monthly in Detroit and Macomb County.

Leaps and Bounds Family Services was established in 1988 to creatively and collaboratively address the educational needs of children and families. The organization has offices in Detroit and Warren and serves over 5,000 individuals annually.
